"So [the technician] called up the oncologist who told me not to worry, but I wanted to see if I could walk it off." The doctor told her she could walk it off, and it actually got better, she said, but the diagnosis of a bone fracture, coupled with the development of the x-ray, took a toll on Cunningham. "I know it's common to hear about people's lives being saved but I was scared," she said. "I was like, 'Oh my God, what if I do this?'"
